'SNOWY' BAKER BACK FROM WORLD TOUR SAYS HE HAS STAR BOXERS

Reginald L. (Snowy) Baker, who passed through Honolulu six months ago enroute to the United States and Europe on the look-out for boxing talent to take to Australia, is a homeward-bound passenger on the Sonoma, which arrived here this morning. He is enthusiastic over his trip, for, besides sending over Jimmy Clabby, he got in touch with the leading boxers in the United States and Europe, and hopes in the future to secure some high-class talent for his shows in the Antipodes. He interviewed Bob

COL. M'GUNNEGLE IS HONORED BY SPANISH WAR VETS

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, May 18.— At a special meeting of the 1st Infantry camp of the United Spanish War Veterans high tribute was paid to Colonel George K. McGunneagle of the 1st Infantry in speeches and in the unveiling of a large and beautiful portrait painting of the popular commanding officer.

The camp is named after Colonel McGunneagle and its members thought it only fitting that their hall should be adorned with his portrait.
Colonel McGunneagle was assigned to the 1st Infantry upon his last promotion in July, 1906, and has served with the regiment almost continuously ever since.

The hall was filled with members of the camp and invited guests. Nearly all the officers and ladies of the 1st Infantry were present.
Major C. E. Tayman made the address and in eloquent words paid tribute to the regiment, its commanding officer and to the Spanish War Veterans, the members of which are the backbone of the regiment, the oldest and most reliable non-commissioned officers and men, those who have seen service in actual war.

Following Major Tayman's address the portrait, which had been hidden behind draperies of flags, was unveiled by Edward Harrigan, past commander of the camp. The enthusiasm of the assemblage was shown in long and hearty applause, and when Colonel McGunneagle rose to make his response it was some time before he was allowed to proceed. His words were full of feeling and sentiment.

The music by Mrs. W. A. Alken, Lieut. L. I. Samuelson and the 1st Infantry orchestra added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

HOSPITAL ROMANCE LEADS TO THE ALTAR

Miss Cora Weigel and William E.
Green were married in the Catholic cathedral by Father Stephen yesterday morning, the ceremony being a step in the romance which had its beginning several months ago when the bridegroom was a patient at the Queen's hospital, where the bride was employed as a nurse. The bride was assigned to duty at the patient's bedside; the friendship begun, it soon ripened into love and the romance culminated with the simple wedding yesterday. Among those present at the ceremony were Dr. George Herbert, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore, Dr. Dunn, Dr. Rothrock, Mr. and Mrs.
James L. Coke and the following nurses from the hospital: Miss Bessie Young, Miss Johnson, Miss Kenny, Miss Heaton, Miss Kinkead and Miss Mae Merriam.

also be given an engagement if he succeeds in his announced "come-Baker stated this morning that he now had 25 top-notchers in the fight-game booked for the southern continental tour. Interested in a mammoth aerodrome at Sydney and Melbourne, Baker has also secured a line of attractions including world-famed aviators and athletes. The celebrities, great and small, will all pass through Honolulu in filling their contracts.

Fort Shafter Notes

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

FORT SHAFTER, May 18.—What might have been a serious fire narrowly averted on last Friday morning when the canvas roof of the garage belonging to Lieutenant Bolter of the Second Infantry caught fire from the dropping sparks from the chimney of the range in the house.
The incident occurred about 11 o'clock in the morning and was fortunately discovered by passers-by and a few buckets of water extinguished the flames in time to avoid serious results. As the buildings that compose the cantonment are of rough pine and the material is now well seasoned a fire with the buildings in such close proximity would be a difficult situation to handle.

Under orders from post headquarters baseball will hereafter have the status of a military duty and the men selected for the squad to represent the Second Infantry in that game will be excused from all military duty after 12 noon, and in addition will be off guard and fatigue rosters. Lieut.
Charles B. Lyman will, under the same authority, be in charge of the team and the men will be under his orders as regards hours and kinds of practice. A list of sixteen men has been selected for try-out and this list will be added to or reduced as occasion demands. With this official recognition of the importance of properly representing the regiment in the Army leagues now in full swing, the men will undoubtedly feel that they are being fully supported by the regimental headquarters and will put forth their best efforts to make the team a worthy one. Steady and persistent practice will be at once inaugurated by Lieutenant Lyman and he will at last have an open opportunity to show what he can do as a coach and trainer.
Heretofore he has been working with a squad of players whose attendance has not only been voluntary on their part, but often interrupted by the demands of drill, field duty and the various duty rosters that have prevented them from being out even for occasional practice. That the team of the Second has been able to make any showing at all under the circumstances that have existed has been all the more to its credit and its supporters see in the new status a great chance for success in the games yet to come and will support the men loyally.

The new pattern of infantry equipment has been delivered at the post and the companies are now engaged in assembling the same preparatory to issuing it to the individual soldiers of the command. As is well known, the new equipment represents the latest device for the manner of disposition and arrangement of the soldier's pack and accoutrement and its issue and subsequent trial will be a subject of greatest interest to all concerned. That a distinct and notable change in the general appearance of the troops will result when the change from the old pattern to the new shall have been made is easily understood from an examination of the plates and diagrams illustrating the method of assembling and disposition of the various articles. These plates and blue prints accompany the issue and are to be regarded as having the force of regulations governing the use of the component articles of the equipment. It is understood that the whole of the First Hawaiian brigade has received a full invoice of all items necessary to complete the change and will at once issue and put the same into use.

The following listed promotions and appointments in the Second Infantry have been announced in special orders from the headquarters of the regiment dated May 14.

In company M—Corporal William H. Cameron, to be sergeant, vice Brooks, discharged; Private John B.
Votaw, to be sergeant, vice Sudsbury, discharged; and Artificer William H.
Murdoch to be corporal, vice Cameron, promoted.

Chief Musician Albert Jacobsen has prepared the following program for today's concert by the Second Infantry band, beginning at 6:45 p. m.
March, "Admiral Stosch," Lattin.
Overture, "Mirella," Gounod.
"Last Dream of the Virgin," Mas-senet.
Waltzes, "Moneyfay," Sanglear.
Two-step, "Dynamite," Biese. quantities of roots and herbs are used
